There is a cosy separate front lounge, but perhaps the signature area is to the rear of the house, which is a large open plan living space with superb kitchen area with centre island and Corian worktops, family and dining areas, Aluminium bi-fold doors with battery operated blinds leading directly to outside, and with walk on sky lights above.

With a clear eye for detail, features such as underfloor heating to the bathrooms and rear living area, chrome electrical fittings, and mood lighting all add to its modern feel and the house is immaculately presented.

Outside, a front resin driveway provides off road parking for two cars, whilst to the rear the garden is level and secluded, and includes such features as a sunken fire pit with built-in gas fire, exterior lighting plus a garden room which is set up as a bar, making it the ideal environment for entertaining. Unusually, there is the added benefit of a full width rear balcony.
